CHURCH OFFERSWill Tear Down Wrens but

Oppose TransferAmerican Episcopalians Ask for Doomed OnesBY JOHN STEELE
(BY CABLE-REUTERS DISPATCH)

LONDON, April 4.—The movement on foot among wealthy and influential members of the American Episcopal Church to move some of London's superfluous churches, stone by stone, to America, caused a flurry of indignation here today when it became known that informal advances actually have been made.

The churches involved are those built in the seventeenth century in the heart of London, many of them being beautiful examples of architecture of the period of Sir Christopher Wren.

Since the seventeenth century, however, the "city" has become a roaring center of trade and finance where property is valuable and is as hard to get as in Wall Street or La Salle street.

MONEY MARKS CRAMPED
Wealthy American Episcopalians, cramped for room, have been agitating that some action be taken regarding the useless but beautiful churches and one suggestion has been that they be removed somewhere else in England.

William Russell, the rector of St. Clement's, near East Cheap, which has never been used since the war, recently suggested that it be transferred to America, although admitting the uselessness of the church, which never holds services. He asserted that such monuments should not be sent abroad.

NINETEEN DOOMED
In Lombard street, where the frontage is probably the most valuable in the world, are three churches within a block and only one of them has parishioners. The official of all three asserted that they would oppose their removal to America with all their might.

Americans are understood to be particularly desirous of obtaining twelve Wren churches. The total number of old churches in the financial district is thirty-five or forty, of which the church executives have decided that nineteen must be destroyed, including twelve Wren churches. The property released for sale will be worth millions of dollars.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 4.—Harry Stone, bank bandit, killed in the robbery of the Bank of Hechler, Cal., last Tuesday, was identified by E. J. Johnson disappeared from San Francisco 12 days after he had been arrested on a charge of smuggling narcotics into the city. He forfeited $10,000 bail, which, according to Armstrong, had been put up by a group of society people here.NOTAS LOCALES

(BY RADIO-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
ON BOARD U. S. S. McVittie,
April 4.—The United States Navy, almost simultaneously with those of England and Japan, has invented an almost perfect protection for men below decks against such lethal gases as are now known.

Employment of lethal gas in naval warfare long has been dreaded because of the peculiarities of ship's construction, which includes an ingenious system of pipes and tubes through which high powered pumps force streams of air for distribution to the crew in all compartments. This system, sucking in lethal gas, would actually work in favor of the enemy.

By the new method of gas defense a neutralizing chemical is employed at the entrance of the air funnels, filtering all air going through. Men above decks will wear masks.

Scientists Hope to Unearth
Further Skeletons

Formation in Which Others
Dug Up to be Studied

The Board of Supervisors of Los Angeles county yesterday voted an appropriation of $5000 to carry on further excavations with the hope of unearthing additional remains of the prehistoric race of which five petrified skeletons were discovered recently in the outfall sewer excavations in the southwest part of Los Angeles.

The money is to become available immediately. It was stated by A. M. McPherson, clerk of the board, and will be used by the Los Angeles Museum of Arts, History and Science in conducting an extensive investigation of the area where the find was made, as well as for the proper preservation of the specimens.

The excavations which resulted in the unearthing of the remains already found were carried on at the expense of the Thomas Haverly Company, which has the contract for the sewer work. Recognition of this co-operation by W. A. Bryan, director of the museum, has designated the collection of fossilized remains as the Haverly group.

SURVEY OF DISTRICT
Dr. Chester Stock, head of the department of paleontology at the University of California, arrived in Los Angeles yesterday to confer with Bryan as to plans for further research. He will remain here until Monday and the two scientists will make a survey of the district where the work is to be done.

"We are contemplating excavations not only in the immediate vicinity of the original discovery but in other places also in order to determine if possible, the extent of the formations under which the skeletons were found at a depth of twenty-three feet," said Dr. Bryan. "We intend to dig below the bed of the sewer which was covered in the belief that we may find the gravel bed on which the skeletons were deposited. This will aid in determining the nature of the formation where the bones were revealed."

Dr. Stock, who directed the work of the Haverly excavations, on his previous visit back to the university the jawbone of one of the disinterred skulls, but stated that he had not been able to find time to make a thorough examination of this relic.

"I have had no occasion to change my mind as to the antiquity of the collection, however," he declared. "It may be established by further investigation that the bones date back to the close of the later Pleistocene era, or, as some in America believe, that we cannot at this time be certain."

DATE IN UNCERTAIN
The scientist stated that the chronology of the ice age on the Pacific Coast had not as yet been definitely determined. It is on the eastern coast, where this period is supposed to have closed not less than 25,000 years ago.

"In this section it is probable that the end of the Pleistocene era must be placed at a date more remote, owing to the fact that there is evidence that the recession of the glaciers took place with greater rapidity in this part of the American continent," he explained.

Dr. Stock referred to the interesting possibility that the skeletons unearthed here may be the remains of a race coeval with the Cro-Magnon type of humanity whose remains have been found in caves in the southwestern part of Europe.

"The Cro-Magnons, who are believed to have existed some 50,000 years ago, were well advanced both in physical structure and culture," he stated. "The bones and the stone weapons of a refined type, while the Neanderthal man, antedating the Cro-Magnons, by perhaps 50,000 years used stone implements of the crudest manufacture, while their skeletons were found in a type not much above the ape in structural development."

Upon his return to the university, Dr. Stock will prepare a paper on the discovery of the remains here, to be read before the National Academy of Sciences in Washington the latter part of this month by Dr. J. C. Merriam, president of the Carnegie Institute.

EVIDENCE SOUGHT
The fact that the remains here belonged to a race which was advanced beyond the primitive stage, and that they were found in connection with the bones here, however, which would aid in determining the age in which this race lived, the strongest support of this theory is still lacking, that such evidence may be forthcoming with further investigation.

Upon his return to the university, Dr. Stock will prepare a paper on the discovery of the remains here, to be read before the National Academy of Sciences in Washington the latter part of this month by Dr. J. C. Merriam, president of the Carnegie Institute.

PROMINENT MEN ON LINER Venezuela to Bring 125 Passengers Into Harbor Here Tomorrow From Eastern Coast

One hundred and twenty-five passengers from New York and Central America will arrive at the harbor tomorrow at daybreak aboard the Pacific Mail liner Venezuela, an unusual number of men prominent in the eastern industrial world being noted on the passenger list.

Among them is Charles W. Nash, notable figure in the automobile industry; Bernard Kanich, retired New York financier and for many years a partner in the W. R. Grace Company; and N. E. Booth, head of the New York firm of importers and exporters.

The Venezuela, also is bringing for Los Angeles discharge 5000 feet of rare Coca Cola hardwood from the jungles of Nicaragua, said to be one of the largest collections of the timber ever made to the Pacific Coast. She has an exceptional heavy cargo of Central American coffee and sugar, according to announcement by Clay Hutchings, president of California head of the Pacific Mail.

CUSTOMS FORCE ENLARGED

Efforts of Collector, Senators and Representatives
Win Addition of Forty Men

Efforts of L. H. Schwabe, Collector of Customs, and of California Senators and Congressmen to obtain men necessary to make the Los Angeles customs district the equal of any in the country, have proved successful, a telegram from McKean, chief of the Customs Department, informed Collector Schwabe yesterday. The telegram authorized Schwabe to add forty men to the force in his district, thus giving him a total of 145 guards, inspectors and others.

The addition to the force will mean that smuggling through Los Angeles Harbor hereafter will be practically eliminated, the collector said. The force at present at the port has been two. The additional men authorized includes twenty-two guards. They will be divided into three shifts of eight men each. Their appointment as well as the appointment of others of the force will be made from a civil service list of eligibles.

"What I want particularly as port guards are automobile men," said Collector Schwabe. "Also it will be our work if the guards are ex-service men on horseback."

capable of doing the work necessary in preventing smugglers from using Los Angeles Harbor as a port of entry. The guards will be in uniform and will meet every vessel that enters the harbor.

In addition to the twenty-two guards authorized, the new order provides for ten inspectors at the docks, three border inspectors, two stenographers and typists, and one clerk. The mounted inspectors authorized gives the collector a force of twelve men to patrol the harbor, and has changed his name and so far as he could his identity completely. He said he had been working in local oil fields as a driller.

He admitted he had been in charge of the Marine Corps canteen, but was noncommittal as to whether or not he had stolen funds from it. He said he was a considerable quantity of goods into money and concealing the shortage by showing empty boxes of goods to his superior officers at inspection. He was always well supplied with money, according to Schwabe and was known as a ready spender.

Telegraphic description of the man and his finger prints were sent to the Marine Corps headquarters at Washington by the Long Beach police and an answer is expected today.

Hollywood's famous Studio Club, where many of the present-day film stars lived during their climb to fame, is to be sold immediately. It was announced yesterday by the board of directors in charge of the club that the $40,000 building will be sold at once.

It is hoped that the old building on Carlos avenue and the property on which it stands may be sold and the site collected within two months when Miss Marjorie Williams, general secretary, will return from a trip through eastern cities where she is to inspect many new buildings with a view to obtaining the most up-to-date equipment for the club.

Miss Williams is also to attend the national convention of the Y.W.C.A. in New York City.

PAPER MONEY DOES NOT LAST LONG

Down in the tropics where native workmen often carry paper money tucked inside their shirts, against their bare skins, its life is very short. The average American paper dollar, circulating right here in California, is estimated to last only a year, a $10 bill may last two years, and a $100 bill—for painfully obvious reasons—never wears out.

To use a sure way of determining the life of a bill, it is put through a testing machine. One bill was run through the machine and refolded 1400 times before it broke.

It costs Uncle Sam practically as much to make a $1 bill as it does to make a $10, or a $100 note—about 1.5 cents each, they say. The Treasury, however, if it were practicable to use gold, and even if we always had enough, just how much paper money is lost or destroyed, and never returned for redemption, is difficult to estimate. One guess says that it is not more than one-quarter of 1 per cent.

ABSCONDER OF MARINES TAKEN

Missing With Canteen Funds
for Three Years

Recognized by Long Beach
Policeman-Buddy

Arrest Follows and He Then
Admits Identity

An asserted absconder from the Brooklyn navy yard was arrested yesterday by the Long Beach police, who declare he has been missing three years with funds of the Marine Corps canteen at that station. The amount is not known, but is believed to be considerable as the post is a large one.

The arrested man is described as William E. Kane, alias Robert B. Mull. He is said to admit his identity and that he is a deserter from the Marine Corps, where he ranked the Marine Corps several months ago and joined the Long Beach police immediately.

He claimed to see Kane walking on the street yesterday, recalled the details of the man's flight from Brooklyn, and placed him under arrest. The man stoutly maintained he was Mull, that he had come here directly from Oklahoma where he had worked four years and that he had never been in Brooklyn in his life.

Officer Schack persisted in his identification, but Kane, under questioning by Detective Sergeant Glenn and Detective Sergeant Schack, admitted that he was Mull, that he had come here directly from Oklahoma where he had worked four years and that he had never been in Brooklyn in his life.

"Plain black satin dinner gowns—"

"SLEEVELESS, short, narrow and straight are being worn by some of the smartest women on the Riviera, even for elaborate functions, the dresses being of black background and all sorts of gorgeous jewelry."

THERE have been many women who know the hidden causes of all the popularity. It is becoming, it is versatile, and it is the background for all sorts of gorgeous jewelry."

THE sketched shows such frock! From the Women's Section. Another example of this row straightness shown in the Mises' Shop—as slim can be, single note of trimming the wide ribbon cases that hang from waist to hem. Fashions presented here as soon as Paris.

"K NITTED wear... the plainest lines and patterns." The knitted wear that women have taken to their hearts. Its good looks, its immunity to wrinkles, its very real serviceability have given it a permanent place in the wardrobe of Southern California women.

It's tough to get around the world and then run into an epidemic of foot-and-mouth disease, and "Lonesome Ed" is wondering which of his nine lives is likely to be sacrificed.

Lonesome Ed is the property and boom companion of "Lonesome Mack," west-known globetrotter, but he never had such hard luck anywhere as on his arrival in Los Angeles with the authorities threatening to shoot all cats and dogs on sight.

The business end of a 45 doesn't appeal to Lonesome Ed any more than it does to his master, and both are trying to figure some way out of the dilemma. That what causes the puzzled expression on Ed's face. The chances are a way will be found, for both cat and master are resourceful.

College Cinder Diggers Compete in Conference Track Meet on Coliseum Oval Today

TWO STARS IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Argue and Maxwell's Work to Feature Track Meet

All-Conference Struggle at Coliseum Field

Pomona and Occidental Fight for First Honors

Two Southern California athletes who are almost sure to be among the United States entries in the 1924 Olympic games at Paris this summer will be seen in action at the Coliseum this afternoon when the various institutions of learning in the Southern California Intercollegiate Conference gather for their annual all-conference track meet. Cliff Argue, who has twice reeled off the 100-yard dash in 9.15 this year, and Bob Maxwell, joint holder of the Pacific Coast record of 23.4-5 in the low hurdles, are the two stars who will be the object of a good deal of attention.

FIRST SHOWING HERE
Local fans have not had the opportunity of seeing either of the two performers in any record-breaking time this year for the simple reason that the three meets in which the two athletes made their best time were held out of the city. It was at Claremont that Argue first did 9.4-5 in competition, while Maxwell tied the record in the low hurdles in the same field only in a different meet. Since that time Coach Eugene Nixon has kept Maxwell busy with a number of events and he has not equaled the mark again. Argue negotiated the century in 9.4-5 again against the local University of California team when the two squads tangled at Eagle Rock last week.

Both Argue and Maxwell are the type of athlete that brings joy to a coach's heart. Both work all the time, never leading even in an easy race. That's the reason they're so good. Argue has to run a bit faster in all his races than does Maxwell, for his competition is keener. Phil Buckman, another of Oxy's good sprinters, being always right on Argue's heels, while Maxwell's team-mates are unable to push him to any extent. However, the Sagehen has the happy faculty of going as fast as he can, regardless of the competition, so things will be mighty interesting this afternoon.

ODDS FAVOR TIGERS
The meet is expected to go either to Oxy or Pomona, with the odds favoring the Tigers slightly because of their win over the Sagehen in a dual meet earlier in the year. However, it looks as if Caltech, with three good men, will cut into some of Oxy's points rather heavily. In this case, should all of the Pomona men perform in their usual efficient manner, the meet will probably go to the Claremonters.

The best events of the day, outside of those in which Argue and Maxwell compete, will be the afternoon's feature, an undoubtedly the quarter-mile, half-mile, mile vault and the two mile.

OCCIDENTAL NINE WHIPS PREP TEAM

The Occidental Varsity administered a terrible beating to the Franklin baseball team at Franklin yesterday by scoring a 22 to 9 victory. The preps started out with a bang, rining up nine runs in the first three frames. Fulton stopped the trot around bases by Franklin when he relieved McDonald on the pitcher's slab in the fourth inning. For the remainder of the game the preps garnered only three hits and did not score a run.

De Mandeville was the individual star of the day when he wielded the willow for four hits, one a triple and scoring five runs out of five times at bat. Laird and Hitch for the preps banged out triples.

SEEK TRIP TO GAY PAREE

Cliff Argue, shown in the lower photo, is apparently smiling over his recent feat of running the 100-yard dash in the best time of the year, 9.4-5. Argue is Oxy's big bet in the all-conference meet at the Coliseum this afternoon. The hard-looking guy clearing the low hurdle is Bob Maxwell, Pomona star, who hopes to bust the Coast record, of which he is a joint holder, in the low hurdles. One doesn't have to be an ancient to remember when its use in trade was confined to sugar, books of the "Albatross" series or trash by Nick Carter and Thomas.

Now you find as respectable lines of books there as you do elsewhere. Not so many titles, but good ones.

Many a small town in the United States, I know of several in California, has a better choice of stuff from the r.r. than from its local book store.

Conditions in Germany are indescribable, Mr. Fletcher declared. Starvation and suffering have become a part of the life of the country in their grip and the situation instead of improving is growing worse.

FLEET RETURNS TO HARBOR SOON

Scheduled to Leave Panama on the 12th Inst.

Concludes Two-Month Duty Tour in Caribbean

New Giant Dreadnaughts to be Based Here

The United States Battle Fleet which last night completed a two-month program of winter maneuvers in the Caribbean Sea will leave Panama for its home base at Los Angeles Harbor on the 12th inst., arriving here at 11 a.m., on the 21st inst., according to official dispatches yesterday from the U.S.S. California, fleet flagship.

The destroyer squadrons will accompany the dreadnaughts as far as San Diego. The fleet will return here intact, Admiral S. S. Robinson announced in the dispatches, refuting previous reports that the coal-burning battleships Texas and New York would remain in the Atlantic to replace the older dreadnaughts Utah and North Dakota. There will be eleven dreadnaughts in the force led home by the California on the 21st inst. The Oklahoma being absent at the Puget Sound navy yard for annual overhaul, is due here today from Mare Island.

GIANT SHIPS COMING
The fleet will remain at this base for training and maneuvers until July 1, when the ships will proceed to San Francisco and northern ports for the annual summer cruise.

The routine of sports, overhaul and gunnery training will be broken, however, in late June, when the British squadron that is making a cruise around the world arrives here from Honolulu.

The British force includes the battle cruisers Hood and Repulse and the light cruisers Delhi, Danae, Dauntless, Dragon and Dundee. The force is due on San Francisco Bay July 7 for a stay of five days.

POLICEMAN WOUNDED BY WOOD THIEF

Abandoned Auto May Give Clue to Assailant Who Makes Escape

In an early morning gun battle at Maple avenue and Fremont street, South Pasadena, Police Officer James Cheek of that town was shot and seriously wounded yesterday by a man believed to be a lumber thief.

Officer Cheek and Officer Fred Williams reported to the Sheriff's office that they came upon a small coupe with a trailer loaded with lumber. Because of reports of extensive lumber thefts in the vicinity they, with Officer H. A. Stanton, watched until a man approached the car and tried to start it.

The officers turned their flashlights upon the man, who immediately began shooting. One of the bullets struck Officer Cheek in the arm and chest, after exhausting the chamber of the revolver, the man escaped in the dark.

The car, which was said by the officers to be registered to Frank Black of 248 Columbus avenue, San Francisco, was held by the police. An effort is being made to find the gunman through the license number.

BABY DAY
Mrs. P.: Most child specialists advise weaning to be begun about the ninth month, unless the child is doing well and the ninth month comes during the hot weather; under such circumstances it is perhaps just as well to postpone it. If your baby has been having one bottle a day, change some time from the second to the fourth month, then she is used to the bottle. Omit second breast feeding and give her another bottle for a week. The following week omit another breast feeding and so on until she is totally weaned. This gradual weaning causes no disturbances, while sudden weaning is apt to do so.

THEFT TRACED BY SCHOOL PIN

Emblem Found on Suspect
Leads to Confession
Leads Officers to Cache of Stolen Property

Two Others Held as Aides
in Sale of Goods

A high school pin aided the police to track a confession from a burglar suspect that resulted in the recovery of valuable stolen property and caused the arrest of two other persons suspected of participation in the thefts, the police reported yesterday.

Tuesday night Officers Prueitt, Keptek, Wellman and Kelms of the police reserve noticed a man acting in a suspicious manner at Fort Moore and Buena Vista streets. They placed him under arrest. He gave his name as Joe Hernandez, 415 Front street, Burbank.

The suspect was searched. Among his effects was a Hollywood High School pin, the officers said.

"Well I'll be darned," said Officer Prueitt, "a high school pin on this bird."

With this clue they started an investigation. It led to the home of E. C. Wilson, 1444 Verdugo avenue, which was searched on March 23, last. Wilson's niece, Miss Mary Wilson, according to the police, identified the high school pin as one stolen in that burglary.

The suspect, the officers said, then confessed to the burglary of the Wilson home and to one of the homes of C. D. McGregory, 805 Verdugo avenue, on March 30, last. Jewelry and clothing were taken in the latter case, the officers said.

Following the confession reported by the police, Hernandez is said to have taken the officers to a lot at Fourth and Cedar streets, Burbank. There the officers at Hernandez's direction discovered a quantity of clothing which he is reported to have admitted stealing.

Later Hernandez is said to have taken the officers to 417 1-2 Commercial street. There the officers reported they recovered a trunk full of clothing and property said to have been stolen. At this address the officers took into custody Maria Moreno and R. Barrozo. The pair are booked at the City Jail on a charge of receiving stolen property.

Annexation and Bond Issue Win in Vote Canvass

The City Council yesterday canvassed the returns from Thursday's special election held in the Hyde Park district to vote $150,000 in bonds for water-distributing lines in that section and reported that the bonds carried overwhelmingly.

The official vote was, for the bonds $19, opposed 14. Returns from an annexation election held on Thursday in Clinton Addition on the western city boundary near Melrose avenue and Crescent Heights Boulevard were also canvassed and the Council found that the vote for annexation was unanimous. Of the twenty-one ballots cast, all were marked "yes" on the question of annexing the district to Los Angeles. The district embraces thirty-four acres.

NEW MEER ALIMONY FIGHT STILL PENDING

After another hearing before Judge Shaw yesterday, it was still undetermined whether the divorce of Meek, millionaire resident of Flint Ridge, and his attractive young wife, Elmina Smith Meek, had ever been reconciled since Mrs. Meek obtained a maintenance award of $150 by an order of a Utah court. The hearing was continued until Tuesday for the testimony of another witness.

Witnesses who testified there never was any reconciliation, with the legal meaning of the term, were placed on the stand yesterday by Howard L. Grack, attorney for Meek.

Mrs. Meek is seeking a new alimony order, on the ground that the Utah settlement was vitiated by a succeeding reconciliation.

DRUG LAW VIOLATOR UP FOR SENTENCING

Federal Judge James will sentence Jose A. Molinar, 240 East Thirtieth street, next Tuesday for violating the Harrison Narcotic law. Molinar was convicted yesterday on evidence revealing that he and Jose Santa Maria were dealing in drugs when arrested in January, 1923. The latter pleaded guilty soon after his arrest and was sentenced to serve four years at McNeil Island. Molinar's defense was that Santa Maria obtained the drugs without his knowledge.

BAD-CHECK SQUAD ACTIVE IN MARCH

Check "kickers" and forgers suffered heavy losses in their ranks during the month of March, according to a report made yesterday by Asst. Capt. Winn of the police check detail. A total of thirty check artists were arrested, the report shows, and a majority of these are already serving time. In addition the detail investigated seventy-seven cases for other departments. Besides Capt. Winn the members of the detail are Detective Lieutenants McCauley, Mattheau, Willis, Curtis and Davis.

ALIENS NATURALIZED

Forty-four persons receiving naturalization certificates yesterday in the court of Federal Judge James represented seventeen foreign countries. The names were divided as follows: Great Britain, 13; Italy, 2; Germany, 3; Netherlands, 3; Russia, Greece, Sweden and Romania, 2 each; and Hungary, Turkey, Denmark, Czechoslovakia, Latvia, Finland, Poland, Norway and Bulgaria, 1 each.

McMULLEN SENTENCED AS SLAYER

Youth in Luggage-Shop
Murder Case Unmoved by Life Penalty

Lawrence (Red) McMullen, 29 years of age, convicted of the murder of Charles Weingarten, proprietor of a South Spring street luggage shop, yesterday was sentenced by Judge Avery to life imprisonment in San Quentin penitentiary. The court also imposed an additional sentence of from one to twenty years, on McMullen for attempted robbery of Weingarten.

McMullen heard the court's remarks without a visible trace of emotion. He was found guilty of first-degree murder with a recommendation for life imprisonment in connection with the Weingarten murder, which occurred January 21, 1923. Clarence (Tuffy) Reed, 31, was the shot that ended Weingarten's life, is now under sentence of death in San Quentin, awaiting the decision of the Supreme Court on his appeal from the judgment of the local court.

Dep. Dist. Atty. Hill, who prosecuted the McMullen case, read into the record yesterday the history of two criminal cases in which McMullen had been involved prior to the Weingarten slaying. This action was taken, Hill explained, as an effort to forestall any probability of McMullen being paroled at the expiration of the minimum term to which he is subject. The record showed that McMullen had served two years in the Whittier State School for the burglary of a drug store at Twenty-first street and Grand avenue in 1918 and that he had pleaded guilty to and been granted probation on a charge of operating a motor vehicle without the consent of the owner in 1922.

Under the rules of the State Board of Parole, it was pointed out that McMullen would have to serve at least seven and one-half years of the sentence and one year of the sentence imposed for attempted robbery.

Later Hernandez is said to have taken the officers to 417 1-2 Commercial street. There the officers reported they recovered a trunk full of clothing and property said to have been stolen. At this address the officers took into custody Maria Moreno and R. Barrozo. The pair are booked at the City Jail on a charge of receiving stolen property.

Following the confession reported by the police, Hernandez is said to have taken the officers to a lot at Fourth and Cedar streets, Burbank. There the officers at Hernandez's direction discovered a quantity of clothing which he is reported to have admitted stealing.

Annexation and Bond Issue Win in Vote Canvass

The City Council yesterday canvassed the returns from Thursday's special election held in the Hyde Park district to vote $150,000 in bonds for water-distributing lines in that section and reported that the bonds carried overwhelmingly.

The official vote was, for the bonds $19, opposed 14. Returns from an annexation election held on Thursday in Clinton Addition on the western city boundary near Melrose avenue and Crescent Heights Boulevard were also canvassed and the Council found that the vote for annexation was unanimous. Of the twenty-one ballots cast, all were marked "yes" on the question of annexing the district to Los Angeles. The district embraces thirty-four acres.

NEW MEER ALIMONY FIGHT STILL PENDING

After another hearing before Judge Shaw yesterday, it was still undetermined whether the divorce of Meek, millionaire resident of Flint Ridge, and his attractive young wife, Elmina Smith Meek, had ever been reconciled since Mrs. Meek obtained a maintenance award of $150 by an order of a Utah court. The hearing was continued until Tuesday for the testimony of another witness.

Witnesses who testified there never was any reconciliation, with the legal meaning of the term, were placed on the stand yesterday by Howard L. Grack, attorney for Meek.

Mrs. Meek is seeking a new alimony order, on the ground that the Utah settlement was vitiated by a succeeding reconciliation.

MAN KILLED IN PLUNGE OF CAR

J. W. Murphy Found Dead

Motorist Sees Torn Fence and Discovers Tragedy

While he was on his way to see his sick wife at Fresno, J. W. Murphy, sales representative of Thorpe & Divers, real estate firm with office in the Grange Building, was killed Thursday night when his car plunged down a seventy-five-foot embankment on the Ridge Route two miles north of the National Forest Inn, it was learned yesterday.

The wrecked car with the body pinned underneath was discovered by H. L. Statton of this city who passed in his machine and noticed the wooden fence torn out and caught the reason. It was found that the machine had turned over three times in its plunge down the side of the canyon.

According to Constable Fletcher and Deputy Constable Brown, who investigated at the direction of Deputy Sheriff Bright, evidence found indicated that the car left the slippery road when the driver attempted to light a cigarette. It is believed the victim did not know the road took a sharp turn at the point where the accident occurred.

The dead man lived at 1517 Raymond avenue, Alhambra. The body is being held at the Noble Undertaking Company at San Fernando.

WRIT PLEA OF LANZIT IS DENIED

Effort for Release of Man in Bomb Plot Case Comes to Naught

Presiding Judge York of the Superior Court yesterday denied a writ of habeas corpus in the case of Joseph J. Lanzit, charged with having attempted to murder his wife, brother-in-law and mother-in-law in a bomb plot.

John S. Cooper, attorney for Lanzit, sought to free the accused man in habeas corpus proceedings on the ground that testimony adduced at a Justice Court hearing of the case did not reveal facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action on a charge of attempt to murder. The attorney presented a brief in support of his petition, in which he quoted several decisions in California cases to the effect that mere intent to murder did not warrant holding the suspect to answer to a felony charge.

Judge York, however, denied the petition after reading a transcript of testimony taken at the hearing. Lanzit is now being held for trial in the Superior Court on a charge of having plotted to kill his wife, Mrs. Josephine Lanzit, her brother, Edward Reutler, and her mother, Mrs. Dorothy Reutler.

Attorney Cooper said he would take his petition for a writ of habeas corpus before the Second District Court of Appeal in an attempt to secure the liberty of his client.

NEW HOME FOR Masonic Club Aim of Society

Irving J. Mitchell, recently re-elected president of the Masonic Club of Los Angeles, in an address before the club at the Alexandria Hotel yesterday, declared there is no reason why the organization should not have a membership of 1000 by the end of the year and voiced the hope that a move toward such a goal be started by the acquisition of a new building to be used solely by the Masonic Club.

"With our present membership of more than 1700 and with each member doing missionary work for the club among our brothers in Los Angeles, the prospects are bright for a large increase in membership within the next few months," said Mr. Mitchell. "As to our new home, it will emerge from the visionary stage and take substantial form when a sufficient number of members devote their intelligence, energy and financial assistance to the project."

Mr. Mitchell said that the Masonic Club, which is a social organization, is also intended to reflect the more serious spirit of Masonry and announced that addresses by noted speakers on questions of civic and national interest will be given at least once a week. The speaker next Wednesday at noon will be Judge Arthur Keach, who will discuss "Crime and the Coming Citizen."

A dance and entertainment for members of the club will be given next Saturday evening in the ballroom of the Alexandria.

CAPT. MOFFATT MADE DETECTIVE INSPECTOR

VETERAN POLICEMAN GAINS
POSITION WITH GRADE
OF $141 IN TEST

Capt. Charles R. Moffatt, a member of the police department for the past thirty-seven years, was appointed inspector of detectives yesterday.

The appointment followed the announcement of the Civil Service Commission that the officer had passed the examination for that position with a mark of 97.51. This mark was made without the usual credit given ex-service men in the department at examinations.

The State will collect an inheritance tax of $175 from the estate of Lydia A. Raymond, Comptroller Riley announced yesterday. Miss Raymond died here Aug. 28, 1913, leaving property valued at $221,118. It was divided among thirty nieces and nephews.
